It was/not read over to the witness and was/not recorded on Audio tape and/or Video tape

States :

I have already provided a statement to Police Scotland and the Police Investigations & Review Commissioner (PIRC).

I have a temporary address, living with my mum, Lorraine Bell (witness), at her address.

I have been asked if I can remember the time when I was told about my partner's death, Sheku Bayoh.

WITNESS STATEMENT

I can remember arriving at Kirkcaldy Police office about 10.30am on Sunday (3.5.15). I would say I was told about Sheku's death about 10.45am. My mum was also there at the time.

Investigator Alistair Lewis and Victoria Karran have shown me three knives.

I can confirm the knives are from my former house at [REDACTED] Arran Crescent, Kirkcaldy. I have signed:

Label No. 216 - Knife 1

Label No. 217 - Knife 2

Label No. 218 - Knife 3

and that these knives belonged to myself and Sheku.

I have been given the opportunity to read over my statement. I can confirm it is a true and accurate record of events.

Signed :

(Witness)
